tools – Featuring Trader's Day Finder®

Avoid failed trades and lost opportunities.

Use the Industry Standard

Copp Clark's Goodbusiness Day Finder® is the only financial calendar specifically designed for forward FX and derivatives markets. It is used and relied upon by financial institutions around the world to determine appropriate schedules in forward contracts and to reduce transactional risk relating to the settlement of international payments.

- Indicates good business days at a glance
- Each day's spread instantly indicates holidays, day counts, and forward value dates for one year forward

- Indicates all future holidays affecting every currency and major global financial center
- Adheres to the 'modified following' protocol and accepted standards of international foreign exchange markets
- Daily spreads also include a 30-year swaps/mid-term table and 12-month count-back table

Add a Base

Our calendar base is built to last. Made of high impact polystyrene with flexible polycarbonate hoops that bend and won't break. The low profile design is ideal for any work environment. (Sold separately.)
